FOREWORD

1289002

In publishing this Index as a public service, the Board of the Centre County Library and Historical Museum, Bellefonte, Pa., would like to pay tribute to the persons who made this publication possible.

Mr. John Blair Linn, a Bellefonte attorney and local historian, issued his large and useful "History of Centre and Clinton Counties, Pennsylvania," in 1883. (672 pp., Lippincott, Phila.) It had a table of contents listing chapters and a separate index for scattered biographical sketches, but lacked an index of names of persons and places.

In the early 1950's, J. Thomas Mitchell, another lawyer interested in history, was asked by Mr. Linn's daughter, Mary, to make a card index of the proper names at her expense. This took him over a year to complete: it contained about 120,000 references on 1800 cards that filled 24 drawers in a filing cabinet. This was placed in the Centre County Library for safe-keeping and use.

Since then, Mrs. Alice Ifversen, the Librarian, has answered numerous requests for information about names in this index, not only from local inquirers, but also from persons in many states. About four years ago the Library Board considered the advantages of having this information in book form, and when encouraged by everything except money, decided to publish at its own expense.

The estimate of costs was considerably reduced when a board member, Mrs. Marie Chandler Miller, offered to type the mats for printing without charge. This difficult job, involving 250 double-column pages of names and numbers, took six months to complete.

W. L. Werner, Board President.
